Porcelain Soldier: Discovering Gratitude in Cancer

By Kelli Davis

Authority Publishing, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .At age twenty-eight, Kelli Davis is young, in a promising relationship, and has just embarked on an exciting, fulfilling career that she is passionate about and is taking her places. Then, one night, she is rushed to the emergency room for severe pain in her arm, and is discharged three hours later with a completely unexpected diagnosis: cancer. Disposition-Discharged: The patient was discharged ambulatory accompanied by significant other. The significant other is ready, alert, and willing to learn. The patient's diagnosis, condition, and treatment were explained to the patient and the patient expressed understanding. With doctors by her side, Kelli finds comfort in adhering to a strict medical plan, but there is no prescription for how to live life after cancer. Porcelain Soldier: Finding Gratitude in Cancer is an intimate, honest journey that follows Kelli as she attempts to answer the questions Why did I get cancer? and What am I supposed to learn from it?, allowing readers to see and feel her struggles to regain a so-called normal life. If Kelli were to walk out...
