Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Letter on the Sanitary Condition of the Troops in the Neighborhood of Boston: Addressed to His Excellency the Governor of Massachusetts Dear Sir: Some time ago I made, at your request, a hasty inspection of the sanitary and general condition of our troops which were first sent to Washington, and reported to you that it was, upon the whole, satisfactory, considering the ordinary condition of armies in the field, and considering that the march of our men was not only their first march, but a forced one. In that sudden and dire emergency, it was meet that Massachusetts and her troops should accept the sufferings and hardships of war without a murmur. It was not a moment for close criticism. But we are getting into a state of persistent war, and it behooves us to see how it can be vigorously prosecuted with the least suffering and hardship to our soldiers that is consistent with honor. Being prevented from aiding the national sanitary commission, as much as I desired to do, at Washington, I have tried to do something indirectly here by visiting our encampments, and I address to you some reflections suggested thereby. From the moment a man enlists in the army his bodily and mental powers belong to the country. He is called upon by honor, duty, and patriotism, to devote his time, strength, and life even, if need be, to her service. These obligations are kept continually before his eyes, and those of the world, in prayer, prose, and verse, to say nothing of army regulations; but there are others which are apt to be forgotten. Obligations between parties are reciprocal,...
