Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Ellen Middleton, Vol. 1 of 3: A Tale From each carved nook, and fretted bend, Cornice and gallery, seem to send Tones that with Seraph hymns might blend. Three solemn parts together twine, In Harmony s mysterious line, Three solemn aisles approach the shrine. Yet all are one, together all, With thoughts that awe but not appal, Teach the adoring heart to fall. - Christian Year. But let my due feet never fail To walk the studious cloister s pale, And love the high-embowered roof, With antic pillars massy proof, And storied windows richly dight, Casting a dim religious light; There let the pealing organ blow, To the full-voiced quire below, In service high and anthems clear, As may with sweetness through mine ear Dissolve me into extasies, And bring all heaven before mine eyes. - Milton. What child of sorrow Art thou, that com st wrapt up in weeds of sadness, And mov st as if thy steps were towards a grave? - Otway.
