Broadway Books, 2011. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "Sara J. Henry opens her first novel like a pro . the throbbing heart of the story is right out of Jane Eyre." - The New York Times Book Review "From the grabber beginning to the heartfelt conclusion, Sara J. Henry's Learning to Swim is an auspicious debut . Fresh setting, well-realized characters, cleanly written, with a mysterious and suspenseful story - just what I was looking for."--Daniel Woodrell, award-winning author of The Death of Sweet Mister and Winter's Bone "Emotional, intense, and engrossing, LEARNING TO SWIM is a terrific debut. The talented Sara J. Henry introduces a thoroughly modern heroine with an independent spirit and a tender heart. Readers will be cheering for Troy Chance as she deftly navigates the treacherous waters of betrayal and loss, and they'll be looking forward to seeing her again when the book is closed."-Lisa Unger, New York Times bestselling author of Fragile " Learning to Swim is a gut-wrenching, heart-thumping twist of the knife. A compelling tale of mystery's holy trinity: love, loss, and betrayal. Take the plunge." - Reed Farrel Coleman, three-time Shamus Award-winning author of Innocent Monster and co-author of Tower "From the opening page, Learning to Swim is a terrific debut. This moving and insightful psychological thriller features the inspiring Troy Chance - an everywoman hero who women will admire and men will want to meet. I can't wait for her next adventure." - Michael Robotham, bestselling author of Shatter and Bleed for Me "From its shocking opening to its stunning conclusion, Learning to Swim is a frightening ride. Sara J. Henry will quite literally take your breath away." - J.T. Ellison, author of The Immortals and The Cold Room " Learning to...
