When the guide takes the traveller to see the Grotto of Pharos, he drops his torch in the darkest spot, as if by accident, and the traveller, fearing that he will never get out, has to go upon his hands and knees, creeping through narrow passages, when suddenly he emerges into the magnificent grotto, lit up by five hundred lamps. Why was the torch extinguished 1 Just to make the grotto look more beautiful. And sometimes a dark AFFLICTION COMETH NOT FORTH OUT OF THE DUST. death-struggle is but the gloomy passage just before we come into the glory of the redeemed.73 Tis but a little while; the way is dreary, The night is dark; but we are nearing land. Oh! for the rest of heaven, for we are...
