If wishes came true I know what I d do For the large and the small, old and young, For golden head wise, for wistful blue eyes, That we meet in the hurrying throng; For the poor and the old, the timid and bold, The sick and the sad, and the gay. For toilers and drones, the dear ones alone, And the loved, who may be far away. For good little boys who never have toys, I d wish that they might have a few. That little bare feet, in cold winter sleet, May be covered with stocking and shoe. On each little child a kind friend would smile, And their lives be...
